

NOTICE FOR MILITARY PERSONNEL INTERESTED IN THE STATE OF CONNECTICUT EXAMINATION FOR PROTECTIVE SERVICES TRAINEE AND/OR STATE POLICE TROOPER TRAINEE EXAMINATIONS.

Commissioner Currey announces that the Department of Administrative Services will provide supplemental testing for military personnel who are on active military duty during the application-filing period (March 21, 2017 – April 11, 2017) and/or on the scheduled test dates for the Protective Services Trainee and State Police Trooper Trainee examinations (April 20, 2017 – May 13, 2017).

Applicants on active military duty during the application filing period, who have not submitted an application prior to the application deadline of April 11, 2017, may contact the Department of Administrative Services, Statewide Human Resources Management Division when they return from active duty to request to submit an application form and be scheduled for a supplementary examination. Applicants must provide documentation supporting that they have been on active military duty during the application-filing period and meet all minimum qualifications as detailed on the examination announcement. Military orders and a written request for supplemental application filing and testing must be faxed to 860-707-1939 or e-mailed to: lawenforcement.exams@ct.gov.

Applicants on active military duty, who have submitted an application form but cannot participate in the testing process on any of the scheduled dates due to active military duty, must fax their military orders to the Department of Administrative Services (DAS), Statewide Human Resources Management Section at 860-707-1939 or e-mail orders to: lawenforcement.exams@ct.gov and request supplemental testing. Applicants must notify DAS in writing when they are discharged or are on leave and are available to participate in the testing process. Applicants must provide documentation supporting that they have been on active military duty during the scheduled test dates and meet all minimum qualifications as detailed on the examination announcement.

Questions regarding special testing for military personnel can be directed to Francine Dew at 860-713-5289 or lawenforcement.exams@ct.gov.
