266 Liquidated damages will be incurred as a result of a Contract breach. By law, the three requisite
267 conditions to establish any liquidated damages are that: (1) the damage from a breach of Contract
268 was uncertain in amount or difficult to provide; (2) there was an advance intent by the parties to 269 establish liquidating damages in the event of a Contract breach; and (3) the amount stipulated was
270 reasonable. Hanson Development Co. v. East Great Plains Shopping Center, Inc. 485 A.2d 1296, 1300
271 (Conn. 1985).

272
273 The Contractor acknowledges that failure to deliver each newsletter within the required time frame
274 would constitute a breach of the Contractor's obligation to the House Democratic Office of the CGA
275 and that said office would be harmed by such failure to deliver. If such default occurs in the
276 timeliness of any newsletter delivery, the Contractor will forfeit twenty-five percent of the payment
277 due for that newsletter printing. It is understood by both the Contractor and the House Democratic 278 Office of the CGA that this amount has been established due to the difficulty in determining and 279 establishing damages in the event that the Contractor does not meet the time lines required by this 280 contract.

291 PERSONNEL

292 No person hired by the Contractor is an employee of the CGA. The Contractor acknowledges its duty
293 to obtain, supervise, compensate, and take responsibility for the performance of its employees. Such 294 responsibility shall also require adherence to all applicable state and federal laws and regulations,
295 including but not limited to those concerning taxes, labor practices, wage rates, unemployment, non-
296 discrimination, and worker's compensation insurance.

297

298 The Contractor shall employ on the premises only persons skilled and trained in the work assigned to 299 them. CGA, in their sole discretion, can determine that any person employed by Contractor is not
300 performing in accordance with the standards outlined in this Contract or the Request for Proposal
301 dated June 20, 2013. Upon receiving written notification, the Contractor shall remove said employee
302 from the facilities subject to this Contract and shall promptly substitute another employee. The 303 Contractor shall promptly furnish qualified substitutes for any employees that, in the sole opinion of 304 the CGA, are unsatisfactory.

305

306 FORCE MAJEURE

308 Contract except in the case of Force Majeure events and as otherwise provided for in this Contract.
309 In the case of any such exception, the nonperforming party shall give immediate written notice to the 310 other, explaining the cause and probable duration of any such nonperformance. These Force
311 Majeure events are defined to be strikes, riots, civil commotions, acts of God, breakdowns of 312 machinery, shortages of power, or drought.

313

314 ENTIRETY OF CONTRACT

315 This Contract along with all attachments to this Contract constitute the entire agreement between 316 the parties with respect to the subject matter, and supersedes all prior agreements, proposals, offers,
317 and counteroffers and understandings of the parties, whether written or oral. No alteration,
318 modification or interpretation of this Contract shall be binding unless in writing and signed by both
319 parties. This Contract has been entered into after full investigation, neither party relying upon any 320 statement or representation by the other unless such statement or representation is specifically
321 embodied in this Contract.

323 SEVERABILITY

324 In the event that one or more provisions of this Contract are held unenforceable in the jurisdiction as 325 indicated below, the remaining provisions of this Contract will remain in full force unless agreed
326 otherwise by the parties in writing.

This notice is provided under the authority of Connecticut General Statutes 9-612(g)(2), as amended by P.A. 07-1, and is for the purpose of informing state contractors and prospective state contractors of the following law (italicized words are defined below):

Campaign Contribution and Solicitation Ban

No state contractor, prospective state contractor, principal of a state contractor or principal of a prospective state contractor, with regard to a state contract or state contract solicitation with or from a state agency in the executive branch or a quasi-public agency or a holder, or principal of a holder of a valid prequalification certificate, shall make a contribution to, or solicit contributions on behalf of (i) an exploratory committee or candidate committee established by a candidate for nomination or election to the office of Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, State Comptroller, Secretary of the State or State Treasurer, (ii) a political committee authorized to make contributions or expenditures to or for the benefit of such candidates, or (iii) a party committee;

In addition, no holder or principal of a holder of a valid prequalification certificate, shall make a contribution to, or solicit contributions on behalf of (i) an exploratory committee or candidate committee established by a candidate for nomination or election to the office of State senator or State representative, (ii) a political committee authorized to make contributions or expenditures to or for the benefit of such candidates, or (iii) a party committee.

Duty to Inform

State contractors and prospective state contractors are required to inform their principals of the above prohibitions, as applicable, and the possible penalties and other consequences of any violation thereof.

Penalties for Violations

Contributions or solicitations of contributions made in violation of the above prohibitions may result in the following civil and criminal penalties:

Civil penalties - $2000 or twice the amount of the prohibited contribution, whichever is greater, against a principal or a contractor. Any state contractor or prospective state contractor which fails to make reasonable efforts to comply with the provisions requiring notice to its principals of these prohibitions and the possible consequences of their violations may also be subject to civil penalties of $2000 or twice the amount of the prohibited contributions made by their principals.

Criminal penalties - Any knowing and willful violation of the prohibition is a Class D felony, which may subject the violator to imprisonment of not more than 5 years, or $5000 in fines, or both.

Contract Consequences

Contributions made or solicited in violation of the above prohibitions may result, in the case of a state contractor, in the contract being voided. Contributions made or solicited in violation of the above prohibitions, in the case of a prospective state contractor, shall result in the contract described in the state contract solicitation not being awarded to the prospective state contractor, unless the State Elections Enforcement Commission determines that mitigating circumstances exist concerning such violation.

The State will not award any other state contract to anyone found in violation of the above prohibitions for a period of one year after the election for which such contribution is made or solicited, unless the State Elections Enforcement Commission determines that mitigating circumstances exist concerning such violation. Additional information and the entire text of P.A. 07-1 may be found on the website of the State Elections Enforcement Commission, www.ct.gov/seec. - (b) A customer's payment of a use tax to the Contractor or its Affiliates relieves the customer of liability for the use tax;
- (c) The Contractor and its Affiliates shall remit all use taxes they collect from customers on or before the due date specified in the Contract, which may not be later than the last day of the month next succeeding the end of a calendar quarter or other tax collection period during which the tax was collected;

The parties acknowledge and agree that nothing in this Contract shall be construed as a modification, compromise or waiver by the CGA or the State of any rights or defenses of any immunities provided by Federal law or the laws of the State of Connecticut to the CGA or the State of Connecticut or any of its officers and employees, which they may have had, now have or will have with respect to all matters arising out of the Contract. To the extent that this section conflicts with any other section, this section shall govern.

2.9 Summary of State Ethics Laws

Pursuant to the requirements of section 1-101qq of the Connecticut General Statutes, the summary of State ethics laws developed by the State Ethics Commission pursuant to section 1-81b of the Connecticut General Statutes is incorporated by reference into and made a part of the Contract as if the summary had been fully set forth in the Contract.

The Contractor's costs and expenses for the credit monitoring and protection plan shall not be recoverable from the CGA or any State of Connecticut entity.
6. The Contractor represents and warrants that it shall obligate each Contractor Party in a written Contract to all of the terms of this Section just as if each Contractor Party had executed this Contract as an original signatory and each were bound by this Section to the same extent that the Contractor is bound.
7. The Contractor's or Contractor Parties' failure to encrypt the data, provide notice, or to provide the credit monitoring or protection plan shall be deemed to be, without more, a material breach of this Contract. The Contractor shall be responsible for any Contractor Parties breach as if the Contractor itself had breached the Contract. Consequently, and without otherwise limiting the rights of the CGA at law or in equity, the Contractor shall indemnify and hold harmless the CGA and the State, as appropriate, for any and all damages, costs and expenses associated directly or indirectly with Contractor's or Contractor Parties' breach. The damages, costs and expenses shall include, but not be limited to, those resulting from any corresponding Contracting for credit or identity protection services, or both, and from any subsequent non-State use of any data.
