- j. The contractor shall supply, to the agency, a copy of all material safety data sheets for all products used in the process of construction, construction materials, and products brought onto the premises.

Rules and Regulations of the Department of Correction Facility (3.03)

All persons employed or entering the Department of Correction Facility shall read the following rules and regulations and extracts of the laws governing the introduction and control of contraband. Each employee or person shall sign this paper to assure that he/she understands the penalties imposed for violation of these rules and regulations.

Restricted Areas (3.04)

All persons except Correctional personnel employees, upon entering the grounds are restricted to the immediate area of their work assignment. In order to go to other areas, written permission must be granted by the supervisory correctional official in charge. Only persons having official business will be admitted to construction sites.

Inmates (3.05)

There may be times when inmates may be working adjacent to or in the same area as construction personnel. All persons are prohibited from accepting or giving anything to an inmate. Inmates are accountable to Correctional personnel only; no other person shall have any conversation or dealings with inmates without the approval of the Correction authorities.

Vehicle Control (3.06)

Any persons entering upon the Correction grounds shall remove the ignition keys and lock the vehicle when they leave it for any reason.

Contraband (3.07)

Clothing or contraband shall not be brought into or onto the Correction facility's grounds or left in a vehicle. Contraband is defined in subsequent paragraphs and all persons are subject to these Department of Correction Facility Rules and Regulations concerning contraband when on the Correction facility's grounds.

The introduction or attempt to introduce into or upon the grounds of the Correction facility or the taking or attempt to take or send therefrom anything whatsoever without the knowledge of the Facility supervisor is prohibited.

Contraband may be defined as any article whatsoever which is unauthorized under the circumstances and may include letters, stamps, tools, weapons, papers, floor implements, writing materials, messages (written and verbal) instruments and the like. Any questions which may arise regarding such matters should be promptly discussed with the Facility supervisor. Failure or negligence in complying with these regulations will result in immediate disciplinary action and/or removal from the site.
